

Watermelon Research Portal

Powered by the National Watermelon Association

The first fruit & vegetable crop industry to build a global collection of research for their own industry
The portal is open to all researchers and projects related to watermelon

Open to Submissions

Open to all researchers and projects (NO market research)
Pest and disease issues Soil and water research
Food Safety initiatives Other farm research

Easy Access for All

Accessible by all growers & industry through NWA website
Access through the NWA website (www.watermelon.ag)
Your submissions will be accessible to everyone
NWA-funded research is limited to NWA members-only

Submission Handling

Projects named by their title
No limitations (length, photos, etc.)
Categories (and sub-categories) will create indexes

How to Submit

Send to research@nwawatermelon.com
Start with the Form on the following page
Include a 1-2 page brief (in layman's terms)
Describe project, intentions, findings including benefits
Attach additional documents & photos
Suggest a category to place the submission

Other Materials

We will consider articles that backup your projects

Our Ask of you

We can track access to your projects (with limited expectations)
Share your ideas; Help us to make this database great

This portal will be accessible to all growers and other interested parties
(members & non-members) through the NWA website (watermelon.ag)

To submit your project please fill out the form below. Remit with 1-2 page description in layman's terms and any applicable attachments.

Project Name: _____

Researcher: _____

Email Address: _____

University (If applicable): _____

Project Year: _____ Project Location: _____

Description (1-2 sentences): _____

List Categories: _____

Remit form, description and other applicable files to:

research@nwawatermelon.com